Each of First Trust US Large Cap Core AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust Emerging Markets AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust United Kingdom AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust Eurozone AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust Japan AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust US Equity Opportunities UCITS ETF, First Trust Global Equity Income UCITS ETF, First Trust Germany AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust US Equity Income UCITS ETF, First Trust Switzerland AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust US Small Cap Core AlphaDEX[®] UCITS ETF, First Trust Indxx Innovative Transaction & Process UCITS ETF, First Trust Dow Jones Internet UCITS ETF, First Trust Cloud Computing UCITS ETF, First Trust Capital Strength UCITS ETF, First Trust Value Line[®] Dividend Index UCITS ETF, First Trust NYSE Arca Biotechnology UCITS ETF and First Trust Nasdaq Cybersecurity UCITS ETF (each a "Fund" and collectively the "Funds") has pursued the objective of replicating the performance of the relevant net total return index by seeking to hold a portfolio of transferable securities that consists of substantially all of the component securities of that index in substantially the same weighting as the index.

The composition of the securities held by each Fund has been adjusted periodically to seek to replicate the composition and weighting of the relevant index.

Dividends accrued on the Funds' securities have been reinvested in accordance with the underlying indices. By reinvesting dividends, net of management fees, in the indices, the Funds' cash component was kept to a minimum.

This income reinvestment policy is designed to alleviate the effects of cash drag until the time of dividend payment because the Funds track net total performance indices. Re-exposing cash to the index not only minimized dividend drag but also recurrent management or transaction fees paid to counterparties outside the Funds for short-term cash management.

Moreover, full replication kept the Funds' tracking error with the relevant underlying index within expected levels.

Tracking error computation should be based on net total returns indices because of the Funds' income reinvestment policy. The net total return indices are now publicly available.

Commentary

First Trust Energy Infrastructure Income UCITS Fund (the "NAEII UCITS Fund")

The NAEII UCITS Fund's inception date was 18 January 2017. The Fund seeks to deliver a total return that is balanced between current income and growth by investing in a diversified portfolio of equity and debt securities of companies within the energy and energy utility sectors in the U.S. and Canada. There can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objective. The Fund may not be appropriate for all investors.

Market Recap

As measured by the Alerian MLP Total Return Index ("AMZX") (the "index"), the total return for the period was -35.71%. For AMZX, this return reflects a positive 3.32% from distribution payments while the remaining return is due to share price depreciation. (Source: Bloomberg, EIP Calculations) These figures are according to data collected from several sources, including Alerian Capital Management and Bloomberg.

Performance Analysis

On a NAV basis, the Fund's Class II USD Shares provided a total return¹ of -26.55%, including the reinvestment of dividends, for the six months ended 30 June 2020. This compares to a total return of -35.71% for the AMZX for the period.

For the six months ended June 2020, the Fund's NAV outperformed the AMZX total return, by 916 basis points ("bps"). Outperformance of the Fund was driven by overweight positions in utilities and pipeline C-Corporations ("C-Corps") and underweight positions in gathering and processing MLPs. The index does not have exposure to utilities and C-Corp pipeline companies while the Fund owns a broader universe of infrastructure companies that includes C-Corp pipeline companies, utilities, and MLPs. EIP believes the high payout ratio found in MLPs and other infrastructure investments is only suitable for a narrow set of long-lived assets that have stable non-cyclical cash flows, such as regulated pipelines or other infrastructure assets that are legal or natural monopolies. Over the long term, EIP believes this approach leads to a portfolio of companies at the blue-chip end of the spectrum with less volatility and higher growth.

For the six months ended 30 June 2020, the Fund declared quarterly distributions, represented by the Fund's Class II USD shares as follows: $0.4303 per share in March 2020 and $0.5174 per share in June 2020.

¹ Total return is based on the combination of reinvested dividend, capital gain and return of capital distributions, if any, and changes in NAV per share for NAV returns. Total returns do not reflect sales load and are not annualized for periods of less than one year. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

Fund Closure

On 29 June 2020, the Fund notified shareholders of the proposed termination of the Fund. As a consequence of a number of redemptions in the Fund recently and its level of assets under management, the Board decided that it is no longer commercially viable for the Fund to continue in existence and it is intended that all of the shares in the Fund shall be repurchased by First Trust Global Funds plc on 22 July 2020.

Market Commentary

The first half of 2020 will be remembered for many things with the sharp uptick in market volatility being one of those, particularly for currency markets. The expected economic damage of the Covid-19 pandemic led investors to dramatically cut risk and seek safe-haven assets. Offsetting this were the enormous fiscal and monetary policy actions announced by governments and central banks across the globe helping spur a rapid but partial recovery in most asset classes towards the end of the second quarter. The US Dollar Index ended the 6 month period up a modest 1.04% however that masks a 6.85% rise during the period, at the height of the rush towards the safe-haven US Dollar. Large reductions were seen in interest rate markets globally but particularly in the US as the US Federal Reserve cut the lower bound of their policy rate to 0% and the yield on US 10yr Treasury bonds collapsed 126bps to 0.66%. For currency markets this has meant significantly less carry or interest rate support for the US Dollar, as the spread between short-term US interest rates and other G10 currency interest rates compressed, highlighting the need for global carry opportunities.

There were differentiated moves across the G10 currency pairs over the period but as expected the traditional safe-haven currency performed relatively well versus the US Dollar during the initial volatility spike across risk assets. The Swiss Franc and Japanese Yen rallied 2.04% and 0.65% versus the US Dollar over the period. On the opposite end of the spectrum the Norwegian Krone, British Pound and Canadian Dollar performed poorly, losing -8.72%, -6.46% and -4.32% respectively versus the US Dollar.

Emerging market currencies were generally weaker versus the US Dollar over the period with Latin American currencies fairing generally worse whilst Asian currencies managed to regain some of their losses towards the end of June. Some of the significant losers over the period were the Brazilian Real -26.29%, South African Rand -19.31% and Mexican Peso -17.68% versus the US Dollar. Of the major emerging market currencies, only the Philippine Peso ended the period stronger, rallying 1.66%.

The benchmark currency carry indices ended the first half of the year in negative territory. The Bloomberg Cumulative FX Carry Trade Index for Managed G10 Currencies (the "G10 Carry Index") returned -4.14% while the Bloomberg Cumulative FX Carry Trade Index for 8 Emerging Market Currencies (the "EM Carry Index") fared significantly worse, returning -10.49%. Carry indices suffered during the period due to the increased volatility. However, despite the collapse in interest rates across most advanced and emerging markets, relative carry opportunities continue to present themselves between global currencies.

Fund Commentary

For the period 31 December 2019 to 30 June 2020, the First Trust FactorFX UCITS ETF ("FactorFX ETF" or the "Fund") returned -6.33% on a NAV basis compared to the -4.14% return of the G10 Carry Index and the -10.49% return of the EM Carry Index.

The first quarter of the year saw emerging market currencies and the more commodity sensitive G10 currencies weaken considerably versus the US Dollar as the pandemic started to unfold and culminated with sharply negative moves into the end of March. This negative momentum across these currencies resulted in more conservative positioning for the Fund which helped the Fund achieve a lower drawdown than the Bloomberg carry indices over this period. As at the 31 March 2020 the year-to-date drawdown for the Fund was -5.43% versus -9.31% for the G10 Carry Index and -13.37% for the EM Carry Index. This dynamic turned around quickly in the second quarter as risk assets recovered. The Fund positioning moved more constructive towards the end of the second quarter to try and capture some of this recovery.

As of 30 June 2020 the Fund positioning is net long 12.4% in G10 currencies versus the US Dollar with the larger long positions in the New Zealand Dollar and Singapore Dollar. The net long exposure to emerging market currencies stood at 60.0% with the top 3 long exposures to the Russian Ruble, Indonesian Rupiah and Mexican Peso.

As government bonds yields collapsed globally the implied yield of the Fund also expectedly compressed. However it remains attractive on a relative basis at 2.88% as of quarter end, made up of the implied yield across the foreign exchange contracts and global treasury holdings in the Fund. The average weighted duration of the bond holdings was 0.52 and is invested in AAA and AA rated sovereign bonds.

As traditional fixed income asset classes have seen their yields eroded, many falling into negative territory, alternative assets like currencies are able to provide interesting investment opportunities in our view. We continue to believe that exploiting the carry differentials across G10 currencies and the relative undervaluation of emerging market currencies has the potential to provide positive expected returns for the strategy with low correlations to broad equity, fixed income and other traditional asset classes.

First Trust Low Duration Global Government Bond UCITS ETF*

Market Commentary

The Covid-19 pandemic drove some of the largest shifts we have seen in global fixed income markets for years. Interest rates collapsed during the first half of the year as governments and monetary authorities announced extensive fiscal and monetary support for economies and markets. The 10yr maturity bond yields in the US, Japan and Germany headed towards historic lows but at the same time we also saw widening spreads between the debt yields of less fiscally secure European periphery countries versus the less levered countries like Germany. This was likely a result of investors balking at the additional borrowing required by these countries to finance themselves whilst they are already burdened with elevated debt levels.

The yield-to-worst of the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Treasuries Index fell 48bps to 0.47%, and as the index has a relatively long duration it reaped the benefits from these falling yields. This was particularly true for the market capitalisation weighted index because of its large exposure to the United States which saw steep falls in yields as the US Federal Reserve cut interest rates towards zero. Over the period we saw substantial monetary easing not only from the US Federal Reserve but also the other major central banks, ECB and BOJ, and from many emerging markets. Many emerging market countries also engaged in various forms of quantitative easing to support their domestic treasury yield curves although these programs remain small in scale and with the primary purpose of increasing liquidity in their respective domestic government bond markets.

Looking at yield curve changes, we saw a steepening of the US Treasury yield curve, with the spread between 2yr and 10yr maturity US Treasuries increasing to 51bps from 35bps at the start of the year. The same 2yr versus 10yr spread also increased marginally in Japan but we saw a general flattening of yield curves across Europe. The Italian BTPs 2yr versus 10yr spread fell to 118bps from 146bps at the start of the year. However, despite this it remains one of the steepest yield curves in the developed country universe. Singapore also stands out now as a relatively steep yield curve with a 2yr vs 10yr spread of 62bps at the end of June.

Despite this historically low interest rate environment we now find ourselves in, we continue to see carry opportunities across global government fixed income markets given the dispersion across the flatter and steeper sovereign yield curves.

Fund Commentary

The First Trust Low Duration Global Government Bond UCITS ETF's ("FSOV" or the "Fund") returned -0.11% on a NAV basis in the first half of 2020. For comparison, the ICE BofA 3-5 year Global Government Bond Index hedged to Euros rose 2.54% and the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Treasury Index, Euro hedged, rose 3.51% over the same period.

The primary driver of the relative performance differential between the Fund and the market capitalisation weighted indices was due to the concentration of the indices in the US and Japan. Particularly the US, as the 10yr maturity US Treasury fell a staggering 126bps to 0.66%. Japanese 10yr maturity bond yields were roughly unchanged, rising 3bps however that was unsurprising given the yield curve control policies of the Bank of Japan. The Fund also had larger exposure to some of the European periphery countries namely Italy and Spain, which lagged over the period. Despite the relative underperformance over the period, the concentration of the indices in the US and Japan remain a risk in our view. Together the US and Japan make up 53.2% of the Bloomberg Barclays Index and 68.2% of the ICE Index. This concentration constrains the opportunity set of relatively steep yield curves where investors are currently compensated for taking on interest rate duration risk.

At the end of the year, the Fund's weighted average yield to maturity was 1.11% with an average duration of 3.77. The Fund was invested in sovereign bonds across 21 different yield curves with all the Fund's holdings being investment grade rated. Any bond positions not denominated in the Fund's base currency, Euros, were hedged using currency forward contracts. At the end of the period the Fund's top 3 country exposures were to sovereign bonds in Italy, Singapore and Denmark. The relatively steep yield curves in Italy and Singapore score well on rules-based strategies carry factor while the relatively attractive currency-hedged yield in Denmark scores well on the strategy's value factor.

The Fund's rules-based strategy is focused on selecting those yield curves with relatively attractive currency-hedged yields and relatively steeper yield curves where the Fund is adequately compensated for taking duration risk. Currency-hedged yields are the yield earned on a security after taking into account the cost of hedging the currency risk of that security into the Fund's base currency, Euros. We believe by focusing on these two factors with a disciplined, rules-based process will provide positive excess returns over time particularly versus the concentrated market capitalisation weighted indices.

The amount which may be invested in such money market instruments, short-term instruments and eligible collective investment schemes shall not exceed 10% of the NAV of the Biotechnology ETF.

The investment objective of First Trust Nasdaq Cybersecurity UCITS ETF (the "Cybersecurity ETF") is to provide investors with investment results that correspond generally to the price and yield (before the Cybersecurity ETF's fees and expenses) of a total return equity index called the Nasdaq CTA Cybersecurity IndexSM (the "Cybersecurity Index"). In order to achieve its investment objective, the investment policy of the Cybersecurity ETF is to invest at least 90% of its net assets in the common stocks and depositary receipts that comprise the Cybersecurity Index or in depositary receipts that may include ADRs or GDRs representing securities in the Cybersecurity Index where direct investment in a constituent security of the Cybersecurity Index is not possible.

Subject to Schedule III of the Company's prospectus, the Investment Manager may also invest in a portfolio of assets which may comprise money market or short-term instruments such as Investment Grade fixed and floating government securities, bankers' acceptances, certificates of deposit, and eligible collective investment schemes which are either money market funds and/or which have a similar investment objective and policies as that of the Cybersecurity ETF. The amount which may be invested in such money market instruments, short-term instruments and eligible collective investment schemes shall not exceed 10% of the NAV of the Cybersecurity ETF.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

A. Basis of Preparation and Accounting Convention

These condensed interim unaudited financial statements for the financial period ended 30 June 2020 (the "Reporting Period") have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland ("Irish GAAP") including Financial Reporting Standard ("FRS") 104 - Interim Financial Reporting ("FRS 104"), "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland" issued by the Financial Reporting Council and Irish statute comprising the Companies Act, the UCITS Regulations, the Central Bank UCITS Regulations and the listing rules of the Euronext Dublin, Amsterdam and Paris Stock Exchanges, the London Stock Exchange, the Deutsche Boerse, the SIX Swiss Exchange and the Borsa Italiana. The condensed interim unaudited financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2019.

For the financial period ended 30 June 2020

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with FRS 102/FRS 104 requires the use of certain critical estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the Reporting Period. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of the amount, event or actions, actual results ultimately may differ from these estimates. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant are disclosed under the fair value estimation note.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

The Company has availed of the exemption available to open-ended investment funds (that hold a substantial proportion of highly liquid and fair valued investments) under Section 7 "Statements of Cash Flows" of FRS 102 also referenced in Section 10(g) of FRS 104, not to prepare a cash flow statement.

The significant accounting policies adopted by the Company are set out below and overleaf. These policies have been consistently applied to the financial periods presented unless otherwise stated.

B. Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities at Fair Value through Profit or Loss

Valuation of Investments at Fair Value through Profit or Loss

(i) Classification

The Company classifies its investments in debt and equity securities as financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. All financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are classified as held-for-trading. These include exchange traded funds, money market funds, corporate bonds, treasury notes, equities, preference shares and rights. All derivatives in a receivable position are reported as financial assets held-for-trading. All derivatives in a payable position are reported as financial liabilities held-for-trading.

(ii) Recognition and Derecognition

Purchases and sales of investments are recognised at the trade date being the date on which the Company commits to purchase or sell the investment. Investments are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Realised gains and losses are based on the first in first out method ("FIFO") and are reflected in net gain/(loss) on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statements of Comprehensive Income.

(iii) Initial Measurement

Financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognised at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, all financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Under FRS 102, in accounting for its financial instruments a reporting entity is required to apply either (a) the full provisions of Section 11 "Basic Financial Instruments" and Section 12 "Other Financial Instruments Issues" of FRS 102, (b) the recognition and measurement provisions of International Accounting Standards ("IAS") 39 "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" ("IAS 39") and only the disclosure requirements of Sections 11 and 12 of FRS 102; or (c) the recognition and measurement provisions of International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") 9 "Financial Instruments" ("IFRS 9") and the disclosure requirements of Sections 11 and 12. The Company has elected to apply the recognition and measurement provisions of IAS 39 and the disclosure requirements of Sections 11 and 12.

(iv) Fair Value Estimation

Each Fund's financial instruments are carried at fair value on the Statements of Financial Position. The fair value of instruments traded in active markets is based on last traded quoted market prices at the Statements of Financial Position date.

A financial instrument is regarded as quoted in an active market if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis.

C. Income Recognition

Interest and dividend income on financial instruments held at fair value through profit or loss for the financial period is presented as “Investment income” in the Statements of Comprehensive Income on an accrual basis, gross of withholding tax which is shown separately on the Statements of Comprehensive Income. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

D. Income from Investments

The Company records its investment transactions on a trade date basis. Interest income includes accretion of market discount, original issue discounts and amortisation of premiums and is recorded into income over the life of the underlying investment.

E. Expense Recognition

All expenses are recognised in the Statements of Comprehensive Income on an accrual basis.

F. Cash, Bank Overdraft, Margin Cash, Cash Collateral & Pledged Collateral

Cash and bank overdrafts are stated at cost, which approximates fair value. Bank overdrafts are classified as financial liabilities. Cash collateral provided by the Fund is identified in the Statements of Financial Position as Cash collateral and is not included as a component of cash and bank overdraft. For collateral other than cash, if the party to whom the collateral is provided has the right by contract or custom to sell or re-pledge the collateral, the Fund classifies that asset in its Statements of Financial Position separately from other assets and identifies the asset as securities pledged as collateral. Cash collateral receivable/payable in relation to the open total return swaps or futures contracts is identified in the Statements of Financial Position as Margin cash and is not included as a component of cash and bank overdraft. Margin cash is held with the broker J.P.Morgan Securities LLC for the Low Duration ETF. Cash collateral receivable/payable in relation to the open contracts for difference and forward currency contracts is held with the brokers BNP Paribas S.A for the NAEII UCITS Fund and The Bank of New York Mellon for the FactorFX ETF.

G. Redeemable Participating Shares

For the NAEII UCITS Fund, FactorFX ETF and Low Duration ETF, redeemable participating shares are redeemable at the shareholder’s option and are classified as financial liabilities. Participating shares can be redeemed at any time for cash equal to a proportionate share of the Company’s NAV. The participating share is carried at the redemption amount that is payable at the Statements of Financial Position date if the shareholder exercised its right to put the share back to the Company.

For the US Large Cap ETF, Emerging Markets ETF, UK ETF, Eurozone ETF, Japan ETF, US Equity Opportunities ETF, Global ETF, Germany ETF, US Equity ETF, Switzerland ETF, US Small Cap ETF, Indxx ETF, Dow Jones ETF, Cloud Computing ETF, Capital Strength ETF, Value Line Dividend ETF, Biotechnology ETF and Cybersecurity ETF shares can be redeemed on the primary or secondary market and are classified as financial liabilities. The primary market is the market on which shares of the Funds are issued by the Company to Authorised Participants (“APs”) or redeemed by the Company from APs. Only APs are permitted to subscribe or redeem shares on the primary market.

Shares may be purchased or sold on the secondary market by all investors through a relevant recognised stock exchange on which the shares are admitted to trading or over the counter. The purpose of the listing of the shares on a stock exchange is to enable investors to buy and sell shares on the secondary market, normally via a broker/dealer or third party administrator, in smaller quantities than would be possible if they were to subscribe and/or redeem shares through the Company in the primary market.

The fair value of the financial liability for the redeemable participating shares is the redemption amount per share, calculated as the NAV per share less any associated duties and charges, and any redemption dividend which is payable on the shares redeemed.

H. Distributions to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares

Distributions payable to holders of redeemable participating shares are recognised in the Statements of Comprehensive Income. The income, earnings and gains of the Funds will be accumulated and re-invested on behalf of the shareholders except for the US Large Cap ETF, UK ETF, Eurozone ETF, Global ETF, Germany ETF, US Equity ETF, NAEII UCITS Fund and Low Duration ETF which have distributing classes. Refer to pages 24 to 34 for further details.

I. Foreign Currency

Items included in the Company's financial statements are measured and presented using the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates (the "functional currency"). The functional currency reflects the transactions, events, and conditions under which each Fund operates and conducts its business. The presentation currency of the Company is Euro.

The functional currency of the Eurozone ETF, Germany ETF and Low Duration ETF is Euro.

The functional currency of the US Large Cap ETF, Emerging Markets ETF, US Equity Opportunities ETF, Global ETF, US Equity ETF, NAEII UCITS Fund, US Small Cap ETF, FactorFX ETF, Indxx ETF, Dow Jones ETF, Cloud Computing ETF, Capital Strength ETF, Value Line Dividend ETF, Biotechnology ETF and Cybersecurity ETF is US Dollar.

The functional currency of the UK ETF is British Pound.

The functional currency of the Japan ETF is Japanese Yen.

The functional currency of the Switzerland ETF is Swiss Franc.

For the purpose of combining the financial statements of the Funds to arrive at total Company figures (as required under Irish company law), the amounts in the Funds' Statements of Financial Position have been translated to Euro at the exchange rate ruling at 30 June 2020. The notional foreign exchange loss of €4,755,784 at 30 June 2020 (30 June 2019: gain of €957,730) set out in the Company Statement of Changes in Net Assets Attributable to Holders of Redeemable Participating Shares is due to the use of average exchange rates when translating the net increase/(decrease) in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating shares from operations, issuance of redeemable participating shares, and redemption of redeemable participating shares, in comparison to the use of closing exchange rates when translating the financial period end Statements of Financial Position. This notional foreign exchange adjustment has no impact on the NAV of the individual Funds.

The Company may invest in assets denominated in a currency other than the functional currency of each Fund. Accordingly, the value of a shareholder's investments may be affected favourably or unfavourably by fluctuations in the rates of different currencies. Transactions in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rate in effect at the date of the transaction. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Euro at the foreign currency closing exchange rate in effect at the financial period end. Foreign currency exchange gains and losses relating to investments at fair value through profit or loss, derivative financial investments, and all other foreign currency exchange gains or losses relating to monetary items, including cash, are reflected in the net gain/(loss) on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statements of Comprehensive Income.

J. Forward Currency Contracts

In a forward currency contract, the Fund agrees to receive or deliver a fixed quantity of one currency for another, at a predetermined price at a future date. The fair value of forward currency contracts is calculated as the difference between the contracted rate and the current forward rate that would close out the contract on the Statements of Financial Position date. Gains or losses on forward currency contracts are included in the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss on the Statements of Financial Position and are shown in the Schedules of Investments. Any realised gains or losses are recognised in the Statements of Comprehensive Income on the trade date. The Funds may enter into these contracts to hedge against changes in currency exchange rates. The forward currency contracts are used to hedge the currency exposure on individual positions taken by the Funds and to hedge non-base currency investors.

For the financial period ended 30 June 2020

K. Open Futures Contracts

A futures contract obligates one party to sell and the other party to purchase a specific instrument for an agreed price at an agreed future date. Futures may be used subject to the conditions and limits laid down by the Central Bank and the constitution of the Company as of 29 January 2020 (the “Constitution”) and subject to any other restrictions or regulations which may affect the portfolio management of the Funds or the Investment Manager/Sub-Investment Managers. Certain Funds may buy or sell futures to provide an efficient, liquid and effective method for the management of risks by “locking in” gains and/or protecting against future declines in value. The fair value of open future contracts is calculated as the difference between the contracted rate and the current rate that would close out the contract on the Statements of Financial Position date. Gains or losses on futures are included in the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss on the Statements of Financial Position and are shown in the Schedules of Investments. When the contract is terminated, the Fund will recognise a realised gain or loss in the Statements of Comprehensive Income equal to the difference between the value of the contract at the time it was entered into and the time it was closed.

L. Contracts for Difference

Certain Funds may enter into Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”) as a replacement for direct investment in transferable securities or in order to avail of cost or liquidity advantages of Financial Derivative Instruments (“FDIs”) over transferable securities. CFDs are also utilised to obtain synthetic short exposures to particular issuers. CFDs allow a direct exposure to the market, a sector or an individual security. CFDs are used to gain exposure to share price movements without buying the shares themselves. A CFD on a company’s shares will specify the price of the shares when the contract was started. The contract is an agreement to pay out cash on the difference between the starting share price and when the contract is closed. CFDs are over-the-counter (“OTC”) FDIs and the counterparty will usually be an investment bank or broker.

The market value of the CFDs is determined by the traded price on the exchange on which the underlying securities or assets are traded or admitted for trading. For underlying securities traded on markets closing after the time of the valuation, last known prices as of this time or such other time may be used. The change in market value, if any, is recorded as net gain/(loss) on financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the Statements of Comprehensive Income. Realised gains or losses on maturity or termination of the CFDs are also presented in the Statements of Comprehensive Income. Gains and losses on sales of CFDs have been determined on cost basis using the FIFO method.

M. Transaction Costs

A Fund pays transaction costs, such as commissions, when it buys and sells securities. Transaction costs means any costs and expenses incurred in respect of the buying and selling of portfolio securities and financial instruments as Investments, including but not limited to brokerage fees and commission, interest or taxes payable in respect of such purchase and sale transactions. Transaction costs are included in the purchase and sale of each security.

3. Taxation

Under current law and practice the Company qualifies as an investment undertaking as defined in Section 739B of the Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997, as amended (the “TCA”). On that basis, it is not chargeable to Irish tax on its income or gains. However, Irish tax may arise on the happening of a “chargeable event”. A chargeable event includes any distribution payments to shareholders or any encashment, redemption, cancellation or transfer of shares. No Irish tax will arise on the Company in respect of chargeable events in respect of:

- (a) a shareholder who is neither Irish resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes, at the time of the chargeable event, provided appropriate valid declarations in accordance with the provisions of the TCA, are held by the Company; and
- (b) certain exempted Irish tax resident shareholders who have provided the Company with the necessary signed statutory declarations.

A chargeable event does not include:

- (i) any transaction (which might otherwise be a chargeable event) in relation to shares held in a recognised clearing system as designed by order of the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland; or
- (ii) a transfer of shares between spouses/civil partners and any transfer of shares between spouses/civil partners or former spouses/civil partners on the occasion of judicial separation, decree of dissolution and/or divorce as appropriate; or
- (iii) an exchange by a shareholder, effected by way of arm’s length bargain where no payment is made to the shareholder, of shares in a Fund for shares in another Fund; or

For the financial period ended 30 June 2020

3. Taxation (continued)

(iv) an exchange of shares arising on a qualifying amalgamation or reconstruction (within the meaning of Section 739H of the TCA) with another investment undertaking.

It is the intention of the Directors that the shares of the ETF Funds will at all times be held in a recognised clearing system. On that basis, it is not envisaged that a chargeable event will arise on which the Company will be liable to account for tax. However, if, for any reason, the shares cease to be held in a recognised clearing system and the Company becomes liable to account for tax on a chargeable event, the Company shall be entitled to deduct from the payment arising on that chargeable event an amount equal to the appropriate tax and/or, where applicable, to repurchase and cancel such number of shares held by the shareholder as is required to meet the amount of tax. The relevant shareholder shall indemnify and keep the Company indemnified against loss arising to the Company by reason of the Company becoming liable to account for tax on the happening of a chargeable event.

Other Countries:

Income and capital gains (if any) received on investments made by the Company may be subject to withholding taxes imposed by the country from which the investment income/gains are received and such taxes may not be recoverable by the Company or its shareholders.

4. Financial Assets and Liabilities at Fair Value through Profit or Loss

The Company is required to classify fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- Level 1 - The unadjusted quoted price in an active market for identical assets or liabilities that the entity can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable (i.e. developed using market data) for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - Inputs are unobservable (i.e. for which market data is unavailable) for the asset or liability.

During the financial period ended 30 June 2020 and financial year ended 31 December 2019 there were no significant transfers between Level 1, 2 or 3 of the fair value hierarchy for financial assets and financial liabilities which were recorded at fair value.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgement, considering factors specific to the asset or liability.

There were no fair valued securities held as at 30 June 2020. As at 31 December 2019, UK ETF held one fair valued security under Level 3 – Rolls-Royce Holdings Plc-Preference which was valued at £3,152. This security is in respect of a corporate action received of 46 to 1 shares on the Rolls Royce holding on 25 October 2018 which was valued at £3,152.

The tables below and overleaf provide an analysis of financial instruments as at 30 June 2020 and 31 December 2019 that are measured at fair value in accordance with FRS 102:

6. Efficient Portfolio Management

The Company may, on behalf of the Funds and subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the Central Bank, employ techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities for efficient portfolio management purposes as described in the prospectus.

Transactions for the purposes of efficient portfolio management may be undertaken with a view to achieving a reduction in risk, a reduction in costs or an increase in capital or income returns to a Fund and may not be speculative in nature. These techniques and instruments may include investments in currency related transactions such as forward currency contracts, options on currencies, futures and swap agreements in order to hedge against certain currency risks.

The Central Bank requires that all UCITS that use financial derivative instruments employ a risk management process which enables it to accurately manage, measure and monitor the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments. This is documented in the Company's risk management process which is a document filed with the Central Bank (the "Risk Management Process").

The revenue arising from the efficient portfolio management techniques consists of revenues from stock lending, repurchase and reverse repurchase arrangement interest income (disclosed in the Statement of Comprehensive Income) and realised gains/losses on forward foreign currency contracts, options on currencies, futures, CFDs and swap agreements (disclosed in the Statement of Comprehensive Income). These revenues are subject to transaction costs which are incremental costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, issue or disposal of a financial asset or financial liability.

Such techniques and instruments will be utilised in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank. New techniques and instruments may be developed which may be suitable for use by the Company and the Company (subject as aforesaid) may employ such techniques. Please refer to the Schedules of Investments on pages 82 to 166 for details of the open forward currency contracts, futures contracts and CFD's held as at 30 June 2020.

12. Segregated Liability

The Company was incorporated as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds in accordance with the Companies Act and as such as a matter of Irish law the assets of a sub-fund will not be exposed to the liabilities of the Company's other sub-funds. Each Fund of the Company will be responsible for paying its fees and expenses regardless of the level of its profitability. Fees and expenses, that are not specific to a sub-fund/sub-funds, are allocated pro-rata based on net assets across the sub-funds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no assurance that, should an action be brought against the Company in the courts of another jurisdiction, the segregated nature of the Funds would necessarily be upheld.

17. The UK's Withdrawal from the EU

On 31 January 2020 the United Kingdom ("UK") left the European Union ("EU") ("Brexit"). The UK and the EU agreed a transition period from 31 January 2020 to 31 December 2020 (the "Transition Period"), during which the UK will generally continue to apply EU law.

Notwithstanding the above, the UK's future economic and political relationship with the EU (and with other non-EU countries by agreement) continues to remain uncertain. This uncertainty is likely to generate further global currency and asset price volatility. This may negatively impact the returns of a Fund and its investments resulting in greater costs if a Fund decides to employ currency hedging policies. Ongoing uncertainty could adversely impact the general economic outlook and as such, this may impact negatively on the ability of the Company to execute its strategies effectively, and may also result in increased costs to the Company.

It is possible that there will be more divergence between UK and EU regulations post-Brexit, limiting what cross-border activities can take place. However it is unlikely to affect a Fund's ability to receive portfolio management services. At the date of the most recent Prospectuses of the Company, the Funds continue to be recognised by the FCA and can be marketed to UK investors.

The nature and extent of the impact of any Brexit related changes are uncertain, but may be significant.

Depending on the outcome of the Brexit negotiations, it may be necessary for the Company to put in place additional contractual measures with our affiliates and service providers to allow for the transfer and continued processing of personal data in the UK. The manner in which an investor's personal data is used will not change.

18. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Tax Information

The Fund hereby provides the following data protection information notice to all shareholders in the Fund either as at 31 December 2015 or at any point of time since this date.

For the avoidance of doubt, this notice applies equally to any shareholders that have ceased to hold shares in the Fund since 1 January 2016. Furthermore, it should be noted that this notice may be applicable to Controlling Persons of certain shareholders.

The Fund hereby confirm that they intend to take such steps as may be required to satisfy any obligations imposed by (i) the OECD's Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax Matters ("the Standard"), which therein contains the Common Reporting Standard ("CRS"), as applied in Ireland by means of the relevant international legal framework and Irish tax legislation and (ii) EU Council Directive 2014/107/EU, amending Directive 2011/16/EU as regards mandatory automatic exchange information in the field of taxation ("DAC2"), as applied in Ireland by means of the relevant Irish tax legislation, so as to ensure compliance or deemed compliance (as the case may be) with the Standard/CRS and the DAC2 from 1 January 2016.

In this regard, the Manager on behalf of the Fund is obliged under Section 891F and Section 891G of the Irish Taxes Consolidation Act, 1997 (as amended) and regulations made pursuant to those sections to collect certain information about each shareholder's tax arrangements (and also collect information in relation to relevant Controlling Persons of specific shareholders).

In certain circumstances, the Manager on behalf of the Fund may be legally obliged to share this information and other financial information with respect to a shareholder's interests in the Fund with the Irish Revenue Commissioners (and, in particular situations, also share information in relation to relevant Controlling Persons of specific shareholders). In turn, and to the extent the account has been identified as a Reportable Account, the Irish Revenue Commissioners will exchange this information with the country of residence of the Reportable Person(s) in respect of that Reportable Account.

18. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) Tax Information (continued)

In particular, information that may be reported in respect of a shareholder (and relevant Controlling Persons, if applicable) includes name, address, date of birth, place of birth, account number, account balance or value at year end (or, if the account was closed during such year, the balance or value at the date of closure of the account), any payments (including redemption and dividend/interest payments) made with respect to the account during the calendar year, tax residency(ies) and tax identification number(s).
